

Supplement C: Student Handout — Voices from the Shore

STUDENT HANDOUT: VOICES FROM THE SHORE

PART 1 — Wampanoag Perspective

Write a paragraph as if you are a Wampanoag child living at Patuxet before the English arrived.

Starter sentence: "I wake up and step out of our wetu. I can smell the ocean and hear..."

PART 2 — The Rock's Memory

Write as Plymouth Rock remembering the Wampanoag community and the arrival of the Pilgrims.

Starter sentence: "I remember when this shore was called Patuxet. I saw..."

PART 3 — Think & Share

- Why is it important to learn the Wampanoag story?
- How can we show respect when learning about Indigenous homelands?
- What do you think Plymouth Rock would want people to remember today?
